

Press Release – For Immediate Release

Nov 1st, 2017

Contact: Mike Benjamin 570-847-7730
Holiday Happenings Event Committee Representative

Kara Seesholtz 570-752-3930, press 4
Director of Donor Relations and Communications
Central Susquehanna Community Foundation

Holiday Happenings Event Is a Sell-Out

Danville – The annual Holiday Happenings dinner and benefit auction set to occur on Saturday, November 18th at the Pine Barn Inn has now sold all available seating. Unfortunately, we are forced to close registrations and can no longer accept reservations.

Gold Level Sponsors include the following;

Carriage Manor Builders, Inc.
First Columbia Bank & Trust Co.
First Keystone Community Bank
FNB Bank
Geisinger
J&J Financial
MC Federal Credit Union
Montour County Commissioners
Service 1st Federal Credit Union

Auction items this year include; a personally guided trip to New York City; a fold-up bicycle; a Treager wood-fired gill / smoker; even packages to the Greenbrier Golf Resort, the Lodge at Woodloch and Great Wolf Lodge.

The committee for the event is thrilled to have this level of response in support of the 2017 honorees for the Robert N. Pursel Award for Community Service who are

Shiloh United Church of Christ of Danville and Robert L. Marks Sr. Esq. This evening promises to be the social event of the season with fine food, friends new and old, and most importantly the wonderful generosity of the community, gathered to support the Neighbors Helping Neighbors Fund, an unrestricted endowment of the Danville Area Community Foundation. Your participation with this fund supports the many critical functions of important nonprofit programs and organizations throughout the Danville area. Those wishing to show their financial support can still do so by contacting the Central Susquehanna Community Foundation at 866.454.6692 or visit csgiving.org and click on Donate. We hope all will open their hearts and-make this the most successful event in its twenty-two year history.