Central Susquehanna Community Foundation Welcomes New Board Members

The Central Susquehanna Community Foundation (CSCF) recently said goodbye to four long-term board members whose terms ended 2015. The following members all completed two, four-year terms with the Foundation Board of Directors: Roger Davis, Jack Mulka, Joe Scopelliti and Kevin Woodeshick. “These dedicated board members were an important part of early strategic planning sessions that shaped the future of the Foundation and established a solid business model based on service to charitable donors,” stated M. Holly Morrison, CSCF President and CEO.

Seven new board members began their first term at the Foundation’s Annual Meeting in January: Robert L. Albertson, O.D., Christina Bason, Paul R. Eyerly, IV, John M. Kurelja, Ed.D., Nancy Marr, Matthew P. Prosseda, and Heather Rowe.

The CSCF Board of Trustees is a diverse group of individuals that broadly reflects the geographic footprint of the Foundation’s service area which includes Columbia, lower-Luzerne, Montour, Northumberland, Snyder and Union Counties. In addition to the (7) new board members, the current board is also represented by: Kendra Aucker, Chair; John Parker, Vice Chair; JoAnn M. Ferentz, Secretary; John E. DeFinnis, D.D.S., Treasurer; Timothy Apple; Peggy Fullmer; Thomas R. Harlow; Rhonda Seebold; J. Donald Steele, Jr.; and, Connie Tressler.

The Central Susquehanna Community Foundation manages more than 200 charitable funds and makes grant investments throughout the region to improve the quality of life in the Central Susquehanna area. For more information, visit www.csgiving.org, or call the Foundation at 1-866-454-6692.
