29 YEARS OF COMMUNITY CONNECTIONS COMMUNITY GIVING FOUNDATION: SELINGSGROVE

In 1994, members of the Selinsgrove Rotary Club began the Selinsgrove Area Youth Foundation, which focused on providing scholarships to graduating seniors at Selinsgrove High School. Building on its success, the group voted to expand its mission in 2010 to support the local community through philanthropic efforts. Under the umbrella of a community foundation, Selinsgrove continued to provide scholarships while also meeting the area’s social, educational, recreational, and charitable needs.

The Foundation affiliated with the Central Susquehanna Community Foundation (now Community Giving Foundation) in 2006 and awarded $24,000 in local grants that same year. Michael Flock, founding Selinsgrove board member, reflects on this decision: “At first the idea of affiliating with a larger foundation was a challenge. But over the years, the Community Giving Foundation has relieved us of all the back-room responsibilities while telling our story to others in our community. This connection has blossomed in so many ways, not the least of which is the ever-growing impact we have had on the lives of individuals in Selinsgrove and surrounding communities.”

Today, Community Giving Foundation: Selinsgrove continues to assist and encourage donors of all levels to achieve their diverse philanthropic interests while providing a legacy that will serve the community for present and future generations. In 2022, Selinsgrove’s 25 charitable funds granted over $83,000 to local nonprofit organizations and awarded over $20,000 in scholarships to area students. Both historic and new connections are growing meaningful impact for the Selinsgrove area together.
