

SPRING 2026

Community Giving
FOUNDATION™

“Saramae naturally built community wherever she went by leading with kindness, inclusivity, and a genuine interest in others. She believed in working hard, learning continuously, and changing lives for the better. This scholarship honors the way Saramae lived by extending opportunities, encouraging growth, and ensuring her positive influence continues forever.”

Fund Advisor, Saramae Radel Memorial Scholarship Fund

“I have always had a passion for helping others, and this scholarship brings me one step closer to turning that passion into a career in nursing anesthesia. Your support means so much—not only because it helps ease the financial burden, but because it motivates me to work even harder to achieve my goals and make a positive impact in the healthcare field. I am proud to represent Danville as I take this next step in my education. Thank you for your investment in my future.”

WHEN DONOR PASSIONS SUPPORT FUTURE LEADERS

Every donor has those causes and interests for which they are most passionate. While there are many ways to meet your charitable goals through Community Giving Foundation’s customizable giving services, some individuals and families have chosen to create named scholarship funds to support future community leaders in their lifetime and beyond. These unique and personalized scholarship funds invest in the lives of students with diverse backgrounds, ages, future goals, and fields of study—all pursuing their dreams and making their communities proud. Through a partnership with the Foundation, scholarship donors know their community giving legacy will live on through the achievements of these students. The following pages include a list of the 126 scholarship funds currently administered by the Foundation, awarding over $600,000 each year to support local students—

CONNECTING PEOPLE, RESOURCES, AND IDEAS

Community Giving Foundation is dedicated to connecting people, resources, and ideas across Pennsylvania's Central Susquehanna region. As a regional community foundation, we partner with individuals, families, and businesses to turn their charitable passions into meaningful, lasting impact. The Foundation manages more than 400 charitable funds, offering both flexible, permanent endowments that respond to evolving community needs and personalized giving options tailored to donor goals. Each year, the Foundation distributes over $4 million in grants and scholarships to support local students, nonprofits, and community initiatives. Through these efforts, we serve as a trusted partner in helping generosity make a difference where it matters most.

Grounded in local knowledge and a data-driven approach, the Foundation works to identify both immediate needs and long-term opportunities that strengthen collaboration, address gaps, and amplify impact. Our team offers personalized guidance and deep community insight, ensuring that every charitable gift is stewarded with strategic thoughtfulness and care. The Foundation is uniquely positioned to connect community giving with community needs to maximize impact—today, tomorrow, and forever. Together, we are transforming generosity to build a stronger, more vibrant community. Contact the Foundation to learn more about partnership opportunities.
